Dear Parents of Ruah Kids (All 3rd-5th Graders at TIC),

You don't want to miss:

Ruah Cooking & Family Shabbat Dinner Event! Friday, March 12, 2010

It's our successful Iron Chef event! The clock is ticking before Shabbat starts—can the Ruah kids with parent/grandparent volunteers finish preparing a 3-course Shabbat meal and get to the Kabbalat Shabbat service on time? Come on March 12th to find out!

All TIC 3rd-5th grade students and their families are encouraged to participate, regardless of where they receive their Jewish education.

This is an amazing opportunity for your child to meet others in our TIC community and practice kosher cooking. The recipes will be handed out at the family dinner, so they can be used in your home.

The Ruah children and parent/grandparent volunteers will prepare the meal from 3:30-5:30pm on 3/12, then the children will play in the youth lounge until 6pm. Kids will join in at staggered times, since they finish school at different times.

At 6pm Ruah families (grandparents welcome too!) will meet in Reception Hall 1 for a Kabbalat Shabbat service. The Ruah kids will help lead the prayers they know. Please arrive on time for the service at 6pm. After the service, we will enjoy the Shabbat dinner!

Please RSVP to this program with the form below by March 7th.

For more information, please contact us. We hope your family can participate in this enriching, community-building Shabbat program!

Sincerely,

Abby Reiken
