SESSION 1: 9:30–10:40 am

The Life and Work of Bernard Malamud

This semester I will be covering the life and work of Bernard Malamud, as concentrated in his collection of stories “The Magic Barrel.” Each narrative will be discussed in depth and analyzed as it relates to sociologic and historic perspectives. The impact of the American Jewish experience on the work of Malamud and his contemporaries will be examined. Questions and discussion are, as always, encouraged.

Instructor: Gloria Goldreich, critic, novelist and lecturer

SESSION 2: 10:50 am–12:00 noon

Lesser Known Characters of Torah

Which wise member of Jacob’s family lived so long that she spanned the generations from Joseph to Moses? Who was the third son of Adam and Eve? And what do we know about Keturah, Abraham’s second wife? In this class we will explore less than famous figures in the Torah, coming to know their stories and share their legacy. All are welcome!

Instructor: Rabbi Annie Tucker, Senior Rabbi Temple Israel Center
