SESSION 1: 9:30–10:40 am

The Life and Work of Bernard Malamud (continued) and The Collected Short Stories of Saul Bellow

We will continue our exploration of Jewish American Literature with ongoing analysis of Bernard Malamud's book The Magic Barrel... segueing into The Collected Short Stories of Nobel Laureate Saul Bellow. As always, in depth discussions of the stories will be followed by conversations and questions from participants.

Instructor: Gloria Goldreich, critic, novelist and lecturer

SESSION 2: 10:50 am–12:00 noon

Lesser Known Characters of Torah

Which wise member of Jacob's family lived so long that she spanned the generations from Joseph to Moses? Who was the third son of Adam and Eve? And what do we know about Keturah, Abraham's second wife? In this class we will explore less than famous figures in the Torah, coming to know their stories and share their legacy. All are welcome!

Instructor: Rabbi Annie Tucker, Senior Rabbi Temple Israel Center
